(54) Title: SUBSTRATE FOR INK JET HEAD, INK JET HEAD UTILIZING THE SAME AND PRODUCING METHOD THEREFOR

WO 2004/060681 A1

(57) Abstract: For improving adhesion between a protective layer having a portion coming into contact with ink in a substrate for an ink jet head, and a resin layer thereby ensuring reliability in quality over a prolonged period, the invention provides a substrate for an ink jet head including a heat-generating resistor constituting a heat generating portion, an electrode wiring electrically connected with the heat-generating resistor and an upper protective layer provided on the heat-generating resistor, and the electrode wiring across an insulating protective layer, wherein after forming an upper protective layer in which a Ta layer is laminated on a layer formed by a TaCr alloy, said Ta layer is selectively patterned and selectively removed so that the liquid flow path member is formed in a portion where the layer formed by said TaCr alloy is exposed by said removing.

* Special categories of cited documents:

"A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance

"E" earlier application or patent but published on or after the international filing date

"L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)

"O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means

"P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention

"X" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone

"Y" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art

"&" document member of the same patent family
